| Involving Parents inthe Education oftheir Children                                       | The school actively seeks to involve parents in their child's education. A child's teacher will make contact with a parent if they have a concern and equally, parents can contact their child's teacher if they have a concern. Where appropriate , the child's teacher will share half- termly SEND provision plans with parents either through parent meetings or in writing. When reviewed, SEND PPs are sent home in writing and parents are asked to sign acknowledgement of this information and invited to include their views of the child's strengths and needs. Care plans are reviewed termly. The Inclusion team are available to provide further information and support to parents. The Inclusion team works in partnership with parents and outside agencies, gathering and sharing information with parents and inviting them to review meetings or joint planning meetings. TheInclusion teader also gathers information for Education, Health and Care plan(EHCP) reviews or requests for assessments. Parents are invited to make a written contribution to their child's annual review as well as attend the annual review meeting. The Inclusion Leader is able to support parents in making a written contribution, as well as directing them to other support services such as:Poole SEND Information, Advice and Support Service (SENDIASS)http://www.poole.gov.uk/education-and-learning/parental-support/po ole-send-info rmation-advice-and-support-service/Parents Carers Together : https://www.roseroad.org.uk/Rose_Road_Services/The school has access to the Family OutreachWorker and support is available alongside drop in sessions. | Involving Childrenwith SEN/D intheirEducation  | Children with SEND will have an SEND provision plan with targets Teachers andthe inclusion team share these plans with the children togather their thoughts and views and help them to identify what helps them to learnand what they need to do to achieve their targets. Children with an EHCP will alsohave their views recorded as part of the EHCP annual review process. As part of theschool's monitoring process, the SENCO will seek the children's views regardingtheir provision or interventions and share these with the Senior Leadership Teamand committee members.   |
| Assessing andreviewing children'sprogress towardsoutcomes                            | Teachers are responsible for assessing and reviewing the child's progress towardsthe targets and outcomes set out in their SEND provision plans. Thesetargets are assessed and reviewed at the end of each term. When assessing andreviewing children's progress, teachers will liaise with the adults who are providingadditional interventions to support the child in achieving their targets andoutcomes. The Inclusion Leader monitors the assessment and review of SEND PPtargets throughout the year, as well as the effectiveness of the interventions.  |
| Arrangements forSupporting Childrenwith SEND in movingbetween phases ofEducation | The school fosters close links between our local pre-schools and Middle schools. The transition from Pre-school to First school and on to Middle school is managed to include opportunities for the sharing of information between parents, pre-school/middle school and school staff (including Inclusion Leaders). For children starting Reception already identified with special educational needs, a transition meeting will be held to allow for parents and professionals to share as much information as possible. When it is felt necessary children completetransition passports about themselves to inform their next teacher/school.Additional visits are also arranged to reassure children and parents. This can happen between year groups within school or at the point of transfer to MiddleSchool. A photo book of the next school or class can also be prepared for children to look at over the summer holiday in preparation for the Autumn term.   |
| Adaptations to thecurriculum andlearning   | The school makes adaptations/ reasonable adjustments for children with SEND through the curriculum and learning environment. Learning outcomes are differentiated to match each child's needs and lessons are delivered using a range of teaching and learning styles. The learning environment supports all children through prompts which may be   |

The Inclusion Leader, Senior Leadership Team and teachers ensure that reasonable adjustments are made for children with disabilities, in both the indoor and outdoor learning environments and on off-site educational visits so that children with disabilities can access the curriculum.  |
|  | The school building is all on one level, with the majority of areas being accessibleby adults and pupils who are disabled. There is a Treatment Room with fullyaccessible toilet facilities and hoist available. Parts of the school have someadaptations to maximise the acoustic benefits for pupils with moderate hearingdifficulties.   |

| Evaluating theeffectiveness of theprovision made ofchildren with SEN/D | The Inclusion Leader coordinates additional interventions and provisions that matchthe needs of each child with SEND. SEND intervention sessions are short tominimise any disruption to the child's learning in class, but frequent to ensure thatthe intervention has a positive and lasting impact. They are usually delivered by anadult within the classroom or occasionally just outside the room. The Inclusionteammonitors the attainment and progress of children identified as needing SENDSupport each term. Evaluation of the effectiveness of each child's provision isinformed in a variety of ways; SEN PP review, discussions with teachers and TA'sand discussions with parents and children. In addition the Inclusion Leader willmonitor specific interventions through tracking of progress, observation of sessionsand record keeping. The Inclusion Leader also monitors the progress of thosechildren with Education, Health and Care Plans in the same way and through the |
